
Agenda

Sunday, February 10, 2019

4:00 – 6:00pm: Registration Open – Raleigh Convention Center

6:00 – 9:00pm: Optional All RICs Dinner (pre-registration required) – Stockyard 230, 230 Fayetteville St., 2nd Floor

Monday, February 11, 2019

7:30am: Continental Breakfast / Networking – Raleigh Convention Center, Main Level

8:00am: Welcome and Introduction of New Members – Raleigh Convention Center, Room 302B

8:30am: Developer Panel Discussion with all RICs – Raleigh Convention Center, Room 301A
Moderated discussion by Grady Jackson, Capital Bank

- John Kane, Kane Development
- Andy Andrews, Dominion Realty Partners
- Skip Hill, Highwoods Properties

9:30am: Walk to Stewart offices - The Dillon, 223 S. West St., Suite 1100

10:00am: Dix Park Project presentation
Presentation by Kate Pearce, City of Raleigh

11:00am: Bus to lunch at Cameron Village

11:30am: Lunch, presentation and walking tour of Cameron Village by York Properties – Cantina 18, Upstairs
Presentations by Smedes York, York Properties; Lynne Worth, York Properties; and Bynum Walters, City of Raleigh.

1:00pm: Bus to Raleigh Convention Center

1:15pm: Moore Square Project – Raleigh Convention Center
Presentation by Stephen Bentley, City of Raleigh and Grayson Maughan, City of Raleigh

2:00pm: Adjourn

NOTE: The program on Monday includes walking outside; please plan your attire and footwear accordingly.

Speaker Biographies

Stephen Bentley is an Assistant Director with the Raleigh, Parks, Recreation and Cultural Resources Department, in this role he oversees planning, design and communications. Over the last 10 years he has focused on equitably growing Raleigh's Parks and Greenway System through community engagement, partnerships and helping to facilitate two publicly approved voter bonds totaling nearly $200M in funding for Raleigh's increasing public space and facility needs.

Kate Pearce is the Planning Supervisor for Dorothea Dix Park for the City of Raleigh. As the project director she is responsible for the stewardship, use and future planning of the park. Prior to joining the City she worked as both an urban planning and business management consultant. She has a Bachelor's Degree in Economics and a MBA from Millsaps College in Jackson, Mississippi and a Master's Degree in City and Regional Planning from University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Bynum Walter, AICP is a Senior Planner for Raleigh Department of City Planning. In addition to managing the rezoning process for the City of Raleigh, Bynum Walter is chief champion of the 2030 Comprehensive Plan. Current projects include an update to the Plan; coordination of Land Use planning with the Wake County Transit Plan; and the Midtown-St. Albans Area Plan. Bynum served as project manager for the Cameron Village and Hillsborough Street Area Plans. A Raleigh native, she holds a Bachelor of Arts (American Studies and English) and a Master of Regional Planning from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.